Oi! Venho em nome da minha equipe (que na verdade sou só eu mesmo :smile:) dizer que gostaria muito de poder usar suas artes no jogo que estou prestes a criar.

Se você puder e quiser compartilhar suas sprites comigo, ou até mesmo me ajudar no projeto, seria ótimo ter uma visão diferente! Estou fazendo tudo sozinho por enquanto, então adoraria ter alguém para compartilhar essa ideia.

This is nice, but I can't use this. Wanna make a simple Pokemon fangame. I do see you could make those smaller sprites.

That's exactly a fighting bishoujo what I'm looking for!

Given that there's turning animation in runing, what about make more turning motion in walking and idling?

I really like this 2D pixel art character and would like to use it in my game. Could you please clarify the following points?

・Am I permitted to create additional character illustrations (standing poses) based on the purchased character?

・Am I permitted to commission a third party to create such illustrations?

・Is the use of generative AI permitted in the creation process?

・If I sell the game, is commercial use—including the use of these illustrations—permitted?

Note: The character sprites are intended solely for use within the game's UI and dialogue sequences; they will not be sold or redistributed as standalone assets or raw materials.

Thank you for the sprites! They look great and perform really well. It would be even better if there were more aerial attack animations.

Would you be interested to create the graphics for my game which is a Snowbros inspired game for the ZX Spectrum NEXT? It uses 4 bit color (16 color) sprites for my project. The code is really going fine (the below is a video of an older version of the project) and i really need original graphic assets for it. Right now, i just "borrowed" the assets from the Arcade game. Here, have a look!

Bro I know that it is a project u don't have to continue, but I really need to know. If u plan on doing these new animations like parry, could u maybe give us a small hint of when it will be released?
